The appeal of your Central Monitoring Case Designation has been reviewed by the Office of Special Investigations pursuant to Department Directive #4922, "Central Monitoring Cases".

Upon review of data supplied in your CMC appeal, the following decision has been made:

CMC DESIGNATION SUSTAINED

The decision was based upon:

A CMC designation does not necessarily preclude your transfer to a minimum security facility or participation in the available programs. The only effect a CMC designation has on transfers is the necessity of Central Office approval in addition to approval at the facility level.

Retain this information for your records. You may review Directive #4922 for a complete description of the CMC process and your right to appeal this decision to the Office of the Counsel.
